About the Speaker:

Steven Münchenberg Chief Executive Officer,
Australian Bankers' Association (ABA)

Mr Münchenberg has had over 20 years of experience in public policy in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors. Prior to his appointment as CEO, he was Group Manager, Government Affairs & Public Policy, with the National Australia Bank (NAB), responsible for managing the relationships between the Bank and all levels of government in Australia.

Before joining NAB, Steven was Deputy Chief Executive of the Business Council of Australia, the public policy research and advocacy body representing the chief executives of the top 100 corporations in Australia.

He has also been chief executive of a not-for-profit organisation charged with promoting the positive aspects of environmental management in the minerals and energy sectors and has worked at senior levels within the Commonwealth Government.

Mr Münchenberg has Honours degrees in Science and Law and has held board positions with a number of community organisations.

Conference Background

The Finsia-Australian Centre for Financial Studies Banking and Finance Conference provides a unique opportunity for practitioners and academics to exchange knowledge, views and develop contacts. Now in its 15th year, the conference serves as an interface between academics and professionals in the banking and financial services industry.

The full 2-day program can be viewed on www.australiancentre.com.au and <http://www.australiancentre.com.au/events/events-calendar/events-2010/banking-and-finance-conference/brochure-bfc2010.pdf>

Finsia – the Financial Services Institute of Australasia – is Australasia's only professional association representing the entire spectrum of financial services including the wealth management, banking & finance and capital markets sectors. It connects more than 16,500 members with the latest thinking and information from across the industry by providing relevant and high quality professional development and networking programs, a comprehensive suite of career support services and a range of industry-leading information resources and publications. Advocacy and policy initiatives ensure Finsia plays a critical role in promoting industry growth both regionally and around the world. www.finsia.com

The Australian Centre for Financial Studies (ACFS) facilitates industry-relevant and rigorous research and consulting, thought leadership and independent commentary. Drawing on expertise from academia, industry and government, the Centre promotes excellence in financial services. The Centre specialises in leading edge finance and investment research, aiming to boost the global credentials of Australia's finance industry, bridge the gap between research and industry, and support Melbourne as an international centre for finance practice, research and education. www.australiancentre.com.au
